In Faith's Checkbook Navy Blue Faux Leather One-Minute Devotions, Charles Spurgeon supplies daily deposits of God's promises into the readers' personal bank of faith. He urges the reader to view each Bible promise as a check written by God that can be cashed by personally endorsing it and receiving the gift it represents. This edited version of his original work presents his insight in short, thought-provoking segments that you can ponder throughout the day.

This navy blue faux leather cover of the daily devotional features a heat-debossed floral design broken up by two smooth frames separated by a heat-debossed banner on the front cover. The title, subtitle, and author's name are presented in gold foiled letters.

The page format is standard throughout the devotional—day's date, devotion title, Scripture quotation, and short devotional essay offering inspiration. The interior pages are printed in full color, and each month is indicated by a different color banner that stretches across the top of each page. A presentation page is included for personalizing the devotional.
