The chalkboard black cover of the devotional is filled with bright teal, red, and orange swirls and letters, accented with shiny UV varnish, that make up the title.

The book's inside is printed in teal text, and teal decorative banners adorn the top of each page. The presentation page at the front of the devotional also incorporates these design elements but includes extra space for a personal message and names.

This small devotional offers 180 devotions that will help your children get to know God better and experience His strength and courage as they seek His help and guidance each day. Each daily entry has a title, Scripture verse, and devotional passage that is followed by a challenge point to challenge children to engage with faith. Topics include prayer, love, protection, guidance, courage, forgiveness, and much more.
