A praying wife is a powerful force in her husband's life, and the 199 Prayers for My Husband Raspberry-Red Faux Leather Prayer and Journaling Guide will help you keep your eyes on the truth, pray, invite you to reflect, and then prompt you to invest intentionally in your marriage.

The prayer and journaling guide features an eye-catching, deep, raspberry-red faux leather cover with a luxurious and sophisticated feel. An elaborate heat-debossed border with detailed corner scroll designs frames the cover and is accented with a gold-foiled shadow line. A second notched frame with detailed heat-debossed and gold-foiled filigree accents houses the gold-foiled title. The top of the frame indicates in large, gold-foiled numbers that there are 199 prayers in the book.

Topstitching along the rounded edges of the book ensures a quality construction. Gilt-edging adds a simmer to the design and elevates it to the perfect gift. A second luxury feature is the attached ribbon marker to mark your pages. At the front of the book, a presentation page invites you to record the gift-giving occasion.

The two-color interior pages feature a delicate frame with corner scroll designs on each page. The left pages include a topic, a Scripture passage, a prayer, a prompt for reflection, and another prompt for a response. The right pages are lined for journaling. The prayers are arranged topically. As you pray and reflect, you will see the fruit of faithful prayer in your husband, yourself, and your marriage.
